

Pimp my bag!

It's more than just a tube with a handle—it has a strap, too! And like everything else in your life, your bag needs love. That's where we come in

For years, reader Bill Lohr lugged a beat-up leather bag around on his beat-up leather shoulder. "I'm tired of being mocked by my playing partners," the 39-year-old Aurora, Ill., native told us. "Can you recommend something snazzy?" We did Bill one better and sent him a brand new Ogio Edge, which we tricked up with a slew of cool, useful accessories.

FORGET-ME-NOT CLUB REMINDER

Dude, where's your wedge? Back on the seventh green. That brave soldier wouldn't have been left behind with the Forget-Me-Not, a club-bearing cylinder that waves a flag when empty. Club goes in, flag goes down. Club lays on green, flag stays up. All you need to do is notice it. $15; 801-726-1195, golfclubreminder.com

MINI-HUMIDOR

This four-tube humidor prevents your stogies from being mangled and keeps your Cohibas good to the last puff.

SWISS ARMY KNIFE

You can almost forgive the lily-livered Swiss their chronic neutrality, so handy is this stainless-steel golf gadget, which sports a groove cleaner, spike wrench, cigar cutter and divot-repair tool. $29.99; 888-244-2790, cigarsinternational.com

4-TO-GO BEVERAGE COOLER

Are your suds hotter than your putter? Chill out. This cooler includes an icy pack to keep beer and Fresca frigid on the hottest day. $8.99;

OGIO EDGE GOLF BAG

The ball dispenser keeps three pills accessible but secure, one of many patented features of this lightweight bag, which includes an anti-twist shoulder strap and a handy cellphone pouch. $179.99; ogio.com

CLUBWASH IRON CLEANER

Are your irons dirtier than Pigpen? This lightweight club washer will help you get your grooves back. $13.95; clubwash.com

CLUB CHAMP DRINK CADDIE

What's that, Mr. Starter? No outside beverages? No problem! This? It's a 3-wood, not a battery-powered tap that spews forth the poison of your choice from its 54-ounce bottle. Pour! Er, fore! $99.99; golfgods.com
